THE HAVEN-RUST CLUB SPRING CALENDAR

A Home Paper With A Home Editor, That Tells The State News Weekly

Mississippi, Standard Negro newspaper of character, circulation and opinion, with more than 10,000 readers

VOLUME XVIII

MERIDIAN, MISS.

Friday March 20, 1942

Number

Celebrating The 75th anniversary Of Reverend E. F. Young

We note from reading last week's issue of the Echo that membership drive is being sponsored by the General Secretary of the H. B. A., Reverend R. L. Young, honoring the seventy-fifth Anniversary of his father Rev. E. F. Young. He is not asking for personal tokens, but in keeping his race at heart and proves it by his labors to build in a substantial way could have made a living for himself The many sleepless nights that he has perhaps had trying to solve the problems of the H. B. A. could have been spent in almost perfect peace and tranquility. But he chose to build a bridge for others. This peem, the

MR. FRANK JOHNSON

Mr. Frank Johnson of Lodge No. 468, who is the proud father of Mr. A. C. Johnson, who was stationed at that island. A. C. sent his father to place their feet, steady themselves $85.00 for Easter.

We congratulate you, Frank.

NEGRO PILOTS ARE GRADU

Came at evening cold and gray To a chasm vast and deep and wid The old man crossed in the swilight

The sullen stream had no fear of

But he turned when safe on the

And built a bridge to span the tide "Old man, said a fellow pilgrim

You are wasting time by building here, You have crossed the chasm vast

And deep and wide, You never again will pass this way Why build ye this bridge at even

The old gray man lifted his head and said. "Kind friend, there followeth after me a youth Whose feet must pass this way. He too, must cross in the twilight

This chasm has been naught to me, May to that fiar youth a pit-fall

Kind friend, I'm building this bridge for him."

Life is so short that very www of us ever live to see maturity and realization of our dreams. Therefore we must build well so that those who Pearl Harbor when the Japs attacked come after us will have somewhere

Continued on page 2

First Class Of Negro Piluts Graduate From In kegee Flying School

NEGRO PILOTS ARE GRADUATED

The first class of Negro pilots in he history of the U. S. Army Air Flying School, Tuskegee, Ala., March were presented by Major General George E. Stratemeyer, commanding the Southeast Air Corps Training

Among the members of the class hown here listering to one of their instructors, Lieut. R. M. Long, left are: G. S. Roberts, of London, W. Va., Capt. B. O. Davis of Washington, C. H. DeBow of Indianapolis, Ind., Mac

Ross of Dayton, Ohio, and L. R. Curtis of New Rochelle, N. Y. It is expected that they will be assigned to the 99th Pursuit Squadron. Other Negro aviation cadets now in training are expected to be commissioned in the near future.

MERIDIAN DISTRICT NORTH ZONE TO MEET

The Meridian District North Zone will meet Sunday, March 29, 1942 at Good Hope C. M. E. Church, Reverend Corps was graduated at the Advanced Z. D. Brent, pastor in charge. All mebers and friends are urged to be 7, when "wings" and commissions as present. The Missionary Societies second lieutenants in the Air Corps will be expected to make a round report and those that failed to report in the last zone will please come prepared to take care of same. The presidents will see to it that some one be prapared to take a part on the pro-

> Reverend R. L. Young has been scheduled to deliver the sermon for the zone. We are looking forward to one of the biggest and best meeting since the organization of the zone. Mrs. L. Wilson, President

> > ZONE TO MEET

The South Zone of the Meridian District will meet at Blackmans' Tem-

Haven-Rust Club Spring

HAVEN RUST SPRING CALENDAR

The Haven-Rust Club is announcing its events for the Spring Calendar. In the dramatic field the club will bring to its vast play-going public, a sequel to the two other plays, heretofore presented, "The New Minister" and "The Minister's Wife," This time it will be "The Minister's Honey-Look for this rollicking, ilarious, side-splitting Comedy, chuck and crammed with the enjoyment you former president of Lodge No. 174 ple, Carson, Mississippi, the 5th Sun- had passed. Brother Fairley was a to be present at 10:00 O'clock to make He served at one time as one of our a round report from senior and junior local presidents. He was a construcsecieties. $1.00 for seniors, and 50c tive leader, a loving husband and fafor juniors. Rev. M. J. Jones, pas- ther and one who could be depended tor of Holly Springs C. M. E. Church, upon Bassfield, Miss., will preach the ser-We extend to the family and lodge our sympathy in the passing of this. by the representatives and others. splendid character.

SUCCUMBS

Mrs. G. E. Easterling, Chairman

mon. A program will be rendered

The public is invited.

During the session of our Boards or thereabout, Brother C. L. Hall notified us that Brother James Fairley,

My wife and I have read of the 75th celebration honoring your father who is General President of the H. B. A. You can depend upon us for good healthful members who are not too

> Brother James Howard Lodge No. 95, Crandall.

WEEKLY DEVOTION

STATION WCOC, MERIDIAN Saturday Morning 9:35

Rev, A R Clayton Mar, 7

Mar, 21 Evag, J W Golden

Rev, E A Mays Mar, 28

Mar, 14 Rev, Witherspoon